CORAM : S.C. DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 28TH SEPTEMBER, 2006.

P.C.

. None present when the matter was kept back at the request of learned Advocate holding for Shri Salunke. The matter was specifically adjourned after it was partly argued by Shri Salunke and he sought time to take instructions. Even otherwise, once the main petition does not survive on account of death of the petitioner therein, the remedy of the applicant-wife for handing over sum of Rs. 1,74,000/- to her is not the instant criminal application. Reserving all such remedies as are available to her in law and keeping the contentions of both sides open in that behalf, the Criminal Application is disposed of.
